Director of Good Govenment Bureau Makes More harges Against Mayo.

In a new letter to Mayo Hylan Willfam Bullock, director of se Good Government Bureau, flatiy acuses the city's head of encouraging farcial punishment of policemen, breaking olice discipline and throwing the city orn to crime. It is a sharper letter even han the preceding one in which Mr. Hilock cited twenty-four instances of cending policemen let off without punisment. He notes that the Mayor falle to reply to this statement of fact.

"You go further an bestow unstinted praise on the entirepolice force for its work at this time." Jontinues the letter, when it is unable a prevent or to check increase in crime, 4th holdups in broad daylight, with saes carried in automobiles and cracked in parks and with housebreakings and murders on the increase in all pais of the city. Your letter is of impriance also in that it gives public consision of your real police attitude any of the sort of Police Department this city ought to have.

"You betray the fact that with you cany sentences and first and that proper seasy sentences and first and that proper seasy sentences and first and that proper rollee Department for the rest of your administraton. Similarly by this act you, as Maor, tell every policeman that abandonsent of post, which means failure in the first duty of every policeman, is a trival offence in your opinion, bringing only a show at punishment. Herewith I after you a fresh list of patrolmen gien make believe punishment for abandoing their beats leaving the people of he city unguarded: ple of he city unguarded:
